

European Confectionery Consumption and Production

From Caobisco Statistical Bulletin

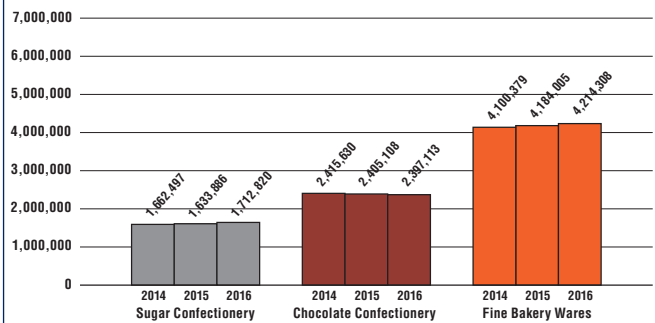

Data on products in the European Union and other European countries is included in the Statistical Bulletin produced by Caobisco. It contains key figures illustrating the importance of the sectors represented by Caobisco (sugar confectionery, chocolate and fine bakery wares) in providing market trends for production, consumption and trade.

Caobisco is the association of the chocolate, biscuit and confectionery industries of Europe. The European sector as a whole represents 12,708 companies producing 11.7 million tons of products and employing 311,755 people.

European Production Trend (in '000 tons)

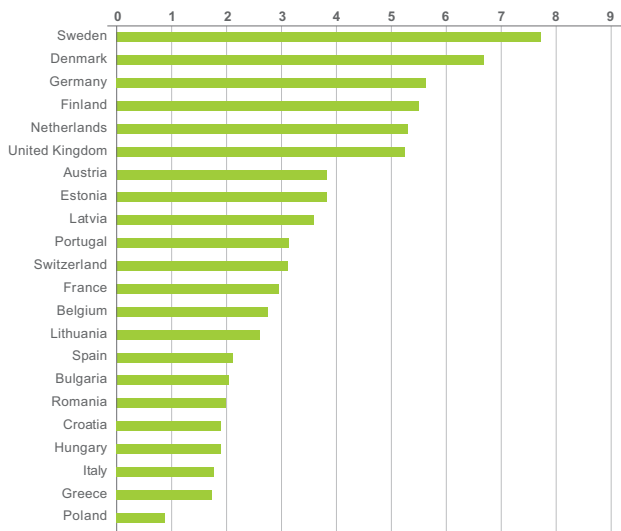

European Consumption Trend (in '000 tons)

European Sugar Confectionery Consumption

in kilos per head in 2015

European Chocolate Confectionery Consumption

in kilos per head in 2015

